

NORTH PROVIDENCE SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

NOTICE OF DESTRUCTION OF SPECIAL EDUCATION RECORDS

The North Providence School Department Special Education Office would like to inform parents/guardians and former students of the intent to destroy inactive special education records related to the identification, evaluation and educational placement of students who graduated, moved or no longer received special education services as of June 2013 school year. Inactive records are maintained for a period of 5 years after special education services have ended for the student. Special education services end when the student is no longer eligible for services, graduates, completes his/her educational program at age 22, or moves from the district. Requests for records can be made by contacting North Providence School Department, Special Education Office 401-233-1100 extension 1115 no later than August 1st, 2019.
